

Save-the-date for The American College of Bankruptcy First Circuit Fellows

The American College of Bankruptcy First Circuit Fellows present:

Valuation in Bankruptcy Cases: The Marketplace, the Courts, and the Eye of the Beholder

What to expect

A discussion about what is often the central issue in bankruptcy cases: valuation.

Speakers

- Honorable Thomas L. Ambro, United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit
- Honorable James M. Peck, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York
- Peter S. Kaufman, President/Head of Restructuring and Distressed M&A, Gordian Group LLC
- Kenneth N. Klee, Professor of Law, UCLA School of Law; Partner, Klee, Tuchin, Bogdanoff & Stern, LLP

For more information, please contact:

- Daniel C. Cohn (dcohn@murthalaw.com)
Murtha Cullina LLP
First Circuit Regent
- Mark N. Berman (mberman@nixonpeabody.com)
Nixon Peabody LLP
Chair of the First Circuit Education Programs
Committee

Date

February 24, 2012

Time

9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.
Luncheon to follow

Location

Boston College Law School
Newton, MA

Sponsored by:

The American College of Bankruptcy

Boston College
Law School